

18 June 2012

CREATING LASTING IMPACT

Annual
Report 2012

UN

UNV Annual Report 2012: Creating Lasting Impact

The United Nations Volunteers (UNV) programme delivers peace and development results through volunteerism. UN Volunteers are at the frontline of implementation and engaging communities at the grassroots level.

UN Volunteers work with United Nations partners, governments, civil society organizations and the private sector, enabling them to deliver on their mandates and programmes.

Volunteers make a lasting impact.

The UNV Annual Report: Creating Lasting Impact captures the essence of the contributions of UN Volunteers, UNV staff and partners to advancing peace and development in 2012.

Read entire Report here: UNV Annual Report: Creating Lasting Impact

Download PDFs:

Statistical and financial information for 2012

Sustainable Development Goal: