Youth volunteering: supporting young people's engagement in COVID-19 response and recovery

The COVID-19 crisis has disrupted every aspect of our lives, with young people as some of the most disproportionately affected by the global pandemic. The impact of the crisis on young people has been systematic, deep and disproportionate, with particular challenges for young women, younger youth and youth in lower-income countries. Read more about how the UN Development Programme (UNDP) and UN Volunteers (UNV) programme are partnering on engaging young people in COVID-19 response and recovery, to ensure their voices are heard and their needs addressed.
