Request United Nations Volunteers

UN Volunteers complement and strengthen the workforce of UN entities, public institutions and civil society organizations. They are qualified, highly motivated and inspirational individuals committed to the principles and ideals of the United Nations. UNV offers different volunteer categories, depending on your needs and the nature of your organization.

United Nations entities

United Nations entities can tap into the full range of categories of UN Volunteers, each with its own characteristics. Do you need more information on our different categories, including related conditions of service and steps to be taken to host UN Volunteers in your office or through online collaboration? Check out additional information by clicking on the below link.
