UNDP Governing Council Decision (78/14) - see page 437

The Governing Council considers that UNV has an important role in providing assistance particularly to least developed and newly independent countries. In addition, the Governing Council appeals to all countries to assist the UNV to the maximum extent possible in the identification and recruitment of qualified candidates.
Sustainable Development Goal: