

Your contributions matter

Volunteer reports are vital in optimizing the impact we can make around the world. Let's share our experiences and learn from them together.

Make your voice heard, share your story!

Take the opportunity to share your story on learning through the Volunteer Report Application (VRA)! UNV is looking forward to hear your voice and incorporate your feedback to continuously improve the training and learning offers to all serving UN Volunteers.

Your Journey, Your responsibility!

Continuous and self-directed learning is amongst the most important tools that will help you to develop your career path. As a UN Volunteer, you have the privilege to freely access the top learning platforms on the market. Honor this privilege by checking out the vast offer and choosing the courses and formats that best support you with your current career goals, as well as help you to reach the next level.

Remember: You are responsible for shaping your own professional and personal development path - and it's an exciting journey!

e-Campus FAQs

How do I log into e-Campus?

Go to <http://learning.unv.org>, and insert your username and password in the corresponding fields on top-right of the page by clicking on "Log in".

If you don't have an account yet, please register by clicking on the "Create new account" link (top-right of the page) and follow the instructions provided.

I don't know my e-Campus username /password

If you don't remember the username/password you have chosen, click on "Forgotten your username or password?" on the top-right of the page under the "Log-in" tab. Once you have done so, you can retrieve your credentials by inserting either your username or the e-mail address you have used when you registered on the e-Campus.

How can I retrieve my password?

If you forgot your password, please click on "Forgot password?", you will be asked to provide either username or email address and you will receive an automatic email with the instructions to set a new password.

How do I enroll in an e-Campus course?

In order to enroll in an e-Campus course, the "self-enrollment" method is in place. Click on the course you are interested in, then on the "Continue" button at the bottom of the page and you will land on a page where you can create your e-Campus account by clicking on "Create new account". Please read carefully the instructions to create your new account. Once you will have done so, you will be allowed to access the content of the course you have chosen.

Can I change my username?

No, it is not possible to change your username, as the username is by default your e-mail address (i.e. the one you used when you registered on the e-Campus).

How do I apply for the UNV learning programmes (e.g. LinkedIn Learning, Coursera, Rosetta Stone, UNITAR, volunteer coaching)?

Currently serving UN Volunteers, who have completed UN mandatory and UNV core courses, are provided access on first come first serve basis free of charge - enrollments are conducted every two weeks. Kindly register via the sign-up survey links provided in this flyer. In case of questions, kindly contact us via the contact form.

Coaching Programme

Through the programme, you have access to individual coaching sessions with certified external coaches. In one or several coaching sessions you and a coach will confidentially discuss questions of concern to you. This can include topics related to your professional development, career plans or relations with your team and manager.

Coaching may help you identify your career options and build a strategy – whether you would like to pursue your career with the UN or elsewhere following your assignment as a UN Volunteer. The coach can help you to develop a plan and discuss your concrete steps towards its implementation.

Few highlights about the coaching programme:

- ✓ Simple, fast and easy: to sign up for a coaching session with a single email to unvcoaching@gmail.com.
- ✓ Confidential: the coaches are external to UNV and the UN and neither your details nor the content of your coaching session will be shared.

- ✓ Relevant and timely: you can decide on what topics you feel are the most important to discuss and when to sign up for a coaching session.
