

UN VOLUNTEER DESCRIPTION OF ASSIGNMENT

VNMR000032--Gender Specialist (UN Volunteer)

The United Nations Volunteers (UNV) programme is the UN organization that promotes volunteerism to support peace and development worldwide. Volunteerism can transform the pace and nature of development and it benefits both society at large and the individual volunteer. UNV contributes to peace and development by advocating for volunteerism globally, encouraging partners to integrate volunteerism into development programming, and mobilizing volunteers. In most cultures volunteerism is deeply embedded in long-established, ancient traditions of sharing and support within the communities. In this context, UN Volunteers take part in various forms of volunteerism and play a role in development and peace together with co-workers, host agencies and local communities. In all assignments, UN Volunteers promote volunteerism through their action and conduct. Engaging in volunteer activity can effectively and positively enrich their understanding of local and social realities, as well as create a bridge between themselves and the people in their host community. This will make the time they spend as UN Volunteers even more rewarding and productive.

Living Conditions

Viet Nam is a middle income country which has witnessed rapid economic growth with impressive results in poverty reduction over the past twenty five years. The country has deepened its integration into global and regional institutions such as the WTO, the UN institutions and ASEAN. Its current path of development is guided by the Socio Economic Development Strategy from 2011-2020 which was endorsed at the 11th Communist Party Congress in 2011. A new Socio Economic Development Plan will be launched in 2016. The incumbent will live in Ha Noi which has most of the economic and social amenities at a reasonable cost. Depending on living arrangements, housing can be expensive. Security is good. Ha Noi has a humid, tropical climate and monsoons. Summers, between May and September, are very hot with plenty of rain, while winters, from November to March, are cold and relatively dry. Living conditions in Hanoi are relatively good by developing country standards. In line with further improvements in the availability of goods and services, health facilities, and housing, the level of hardship in the duty station has recently been upgraded from C to B. Security is also reasonably good relative to other developing country large cities. Viet Nam was recently ranked as one of the more secure and stable places to live and do business by outside research groups.

Assignment Title Gender Specialist (UN Volunteer)

Organizational Context & Project Description

UNDP is the UN's global development network, an organization advocating for change and connecting countries to knowledge, experience and resources to help people build a better life. UNDP works in nearly 170 countries and territories, helping to achieve the eradication of poverty, and the reduction of inequalities and exclusion. We help countries to develop policies, leadership skills, partnering abilities, institutional capabilities and build resilience in order to sustain development results.

UNDP Viet Nam has three programming portfolios; governance and participation, inclusive and equitable growth, and sustainable development. All interventions aim to assist Viet Nam in strengthening its capacity and formulating policies in those areas to deal with complex, sensitive and growing challenges Viet Nam faces as a lower-middle-income country. The office is strengthening its processes and approaches to gender mainstreaming within all parts of the institution to achieve more substantive gender equality results.

UNDP Viet Nam is working with the Ministry of Planning and Investment and the General Statistics Office in implementation of the Sustainable Development Goals and Agenda 2030. Specific technical support is provided to develop policies that balance three sustainable development dimensions: social, economic growth and environmental protection. Particular support is provided to deliver gender results within the SDG framework, with a concentration on SDGs 5 (Gender Equality) and 10 (Reduce Inequalities).

UNDP Viet Nam in collaboration with the Ministry of Foreign Affairs has promoted women's leadership since 2008 with the objective of supporting the government to meet its commitments to increase women's representation in public administration and in the political arena. From inception the partnership placed a high priority on capacity building of women leaders alongside policy reform to promote gender equality. This has included high-level policy-advocacy and innovative use of technology for online training. In its most recent phase, the initiative has also tackled social norms and practices that inhibit women's advancement. The #HowAbnormal campaign to break gender stereotypes was launched on-line and within universities. This campaign has garnered wide spread support, especially from youth, and there is interest from all stakeholders to continue to support this movement to create positive gender norms.

UNDP has also worked closely with Civil Society in the promotion of the rights of lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender and intersex (LGBTI) individuals, focusing on prevention of discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation and gender identity (SOGI).

The United Nations Volunteers (UNV) programme is administered by the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP).

The contract lasts for the period indicated above with possibility of extensions subject to availability of funding, operational necessity and satisfactory performance. However, there is no expectation of renewal of the assignment.

A UN Volunteer receives a Volunteer Living Allowance (VLA) which is composed of the Monthly Living Allowance (MLA) and a Family Allowance (FA) for those with dependents (maximum three).

The Volunteer Living Allowance (VLA) is paid at the end of each month to cover housing, utilities, transportation, communications and other basic needs. The VLA can be computed by applying the Post-Adjustment Multiplier (PAM) to the VLA base rate of US$ 1,587. The VLA base rate is a global rate across the world, while the PAM is duty station/country-specific and fluctuates on a monthly basis according to the cost of living. This method ensures that international UN Volunteers have comparable purchasing power at all duty stations irrespective of varying costs of living. The PAM is established by the International Civil Service Commission (ICSC) and is published at the beginning of every month on the ICSC website <http://icsc.un.org>.

For example, kindly enter the link Calculator

In non-family duty stations that belong to hardship categories D or E, as classified by the ICSC, international UN Volunteers receive a Well-Being Differential (WBD) on a monthly basis.

Furthermore, UN Volunteers are provided a settling-in-grant (SIG) at the start of the assignment (if the volunteer did not reside in the duty station for at least 6 months prior to taking up the assignment) and in the event of a permanent reassignment to another duty station.

UNV provides life, health, permanent disability insurances as well as assignment travel, annual leave, full integration in the UN security framework (including residential security reimbursements).

UN Volunteers are paid Daily Subsistence Allowance at the UN rate for official travels, flight tickets for periodic home visit and for the final repatriation travel (if applicable). Resettlement allowance is paid for satisfactory service at the end of the assignment.

UNV will provide, together with the offer of assignment, a copy of the Conditions of Service, including Code of conduct, to the successful candidate.
