Myanmar, officially the Republic of the Union of Myanmar, is a sovereign state in Southeast Asia bordered by Bangladesh, India, China, Laos and Thailand. One-third of Burma’s total perimeter of 1,930 km (1,200 miles) forms an uninterrupted coastline along the Bay of Bengal and the Andaman Sea. The country has an estimated population of 51 million people. Myanmar’s capital city is Naypyidaw and its largest city is Yangon.

The country is ethnically diverse. The government recognizes 135 distinct ethnic groups but the Bamar form an estimated 68% of the population. Most of them are Buddhists.
Temperatures in Myanmar can vary from place to place. In general, the Myanmar climate is hot throughout the year, with temperatures averaging 27 degrees Celsius or 80 degrees Fahrenheit. The months of March, April, and May the weather in Myanmar can be very hot and humid, especially around the coastal regions. This increase in temperature is caused by the onset of the rainy season. Despite the hot temperatures, there are areas that can be quite pleasant. The interior areas such as Inle Lake and Bagan can be quite a bit cooler than the coastal regions. The mountainous areas can also be cooler as they have a much higher altitude.

Détails sur l'Affectation

Titre de l'Affectation
Monitoring and Evaluation Officer

Contexte organisationnel & description du projet

Myanmar has embarked on a major transition towards democracy, market style economy and peace. Myanmar has low middle-income status (LMIC) and is committed to lifting itself out of Least Developed Country (LDC) status within the next seven years. Following the implementation of the first ever UNDP Country Programme during 2013-2017 and as a key development partner of the government of Myanmar, UNDP will implement a new UNDP Country Programme for the period 2018-2022, striving to deliver on a large and relevant programme portfolio that is responsive to the main development challenges facing the country.

The UNDP Country Office in Myanmar is a key interlocutor and advisor to the union government on rule of law, institution building and accountability issues, and expanding its programme at the state, region and township levels in order to ensure stronger institutions at all levels of government as well as broader civic engagement as part of the effort to build and sustain peace.

The new UNDP Myanmar Country Programme (CPD) (2018-2022) has been finalized and a new structure country office structure has been established to support a more integrated and collaborative way of working to help Myanmar achieve sustainable development and sustained peace. The Country Office has aligned the new office structure with the new CPD and designed new ways of working that will facilitate more collaboration across the office, across the programme and projects, and from union level to sub-national level, and it has introduced an Area-Based Approach targeting five states and regions including Rakhine State.

The IUNV will work for UNDP Myanmar (Yangon office, with regular travel throughout Myanmar) under its People & Peace Governance Outcome area. More specifically, the IUNV will be assigned to work under the Township Democratic Local Governance Project that aims to address institutional challenges in Myanmar’s local governance structures, emphasizing planning at the township level as one entry point in trying to make local governments more inclusive and responsive to people’s needs. The project is designed along four work streams to strengthen the capacities of township administrations to meet local needs for public services; to facilitate information sharing and meaningful participation by the public in... planning processes; to facilitate township administrations engaging with ethnic armed organizations on service delivery coordination (and involve them in township planning processes); and to utilize lessons learned to advocate for policy change.

UNDPs work on supporting township planning process covers Bago Region, as well as Mon and Rakhine states. Currently, opportunities are explored for replicating this experience in Kachin State.
