

© UNRWA: A building collapsed into the street in Gaza.

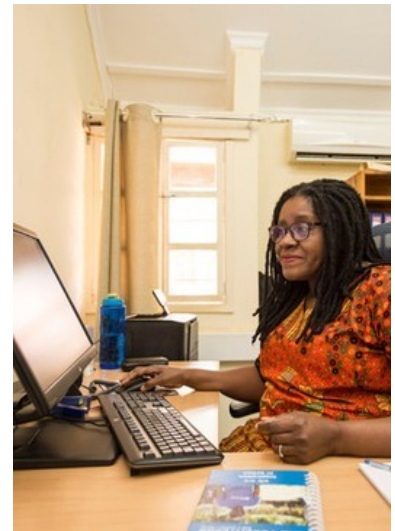

UNV Online Volunteering Offer for the UN Response in the oPt

UNV Online Volunteering

The Online Volunteering solution of the United Nations Volunteers (UNV) programme provides you with flexible and speedy Online Volunteer capacity from around the world to support your rapid crisis and emergency response.

Online volunteering provides UN organizations with:

- Speedy recruitment: within 72 hours of posting request.
- Diverse talent: over 287,000 candidates worldwide.
- Safety: Volunteers support from their own homes.
- Flexibility and cost-free: no contracts or charges.

How can Online Volunteers support you?

Online Volunteers can support your delivery in various areas, including, but not limited to:

- Creating communication materials, media monitoring, and tracking false information.
- Translation and interpretation (Arabic <> English).
- Collecting data, preparing situation analyses, and identifying/mapping conflict zones and response initiatives.
- Writing/proofreading articles and reports, and analyzing conflict-related data (i.e. population needs, replacement patterns, and damages).
- Mental health and crisis counseling.

Online volunteers support to emergency response:

Relief aid distribution
Assessing needs, systematizing, verifying data, and preparing progress reports on relief delivered.

Shelter provision
Systematizing and verifying that shelter specifications are aligned with guidance and standards for shelter.

Public and mental health
Providing health-related counseling, case management, trauma care, and psychological support.

Communications and visibility
Photo and video production & editing, subtitling, public information, monitoring media for misinformation.

Linguistic and editorial
Translation, interpretation, drafting and proof-reading, producing training and learning materials & courses.

Examples of Online Volunteer Actions

Ukraine: Online Volunteers in times of war

- 370+ Online Volunteers have been requested to support 14 UN entities in 13 countries.
- Areas of collaboration: IT-related tasks, data and reporting, counselling, translation and interpretation, programme support, event management, research and mapping, talent acquisition, public information and support in digitalization.
- Read more here and here.

Peru: Online Volunteers for zero hunger

- 600+ Online Volunteers teamed up with WFP to support migrants arriving in Peru.
- Online volunteers undertook 20,000+ phone calls to 7,100+ migrant families, provided them information and guidance on nutrition and social protection issues.

From Türkiye and Syria to Sudan: Online Volunteers are a resource for UN crisis response

- 20+ online volunteers were an additional resource to aid UN humanitarian efforts in Türkiye, Syria, and Sudan during emergencies.
- Promoting well-being, mental health, and psychosocial support for OCHA staff and their family members, through counseling sessions and the translation of materials.
- Read more here.

How to get support from Online Volunteers?

Register
Set up an account for your organization at: app.unv.org

Submit DoA
Create a short task-based online Description of Assignment (DoA)

Shortlist
Review and shortlist candidates who fit your needs.

Collaborate
Guide your selected volunteers and start the collaboration.

Issue certificate
At the end, provide feedback to volunteers for certificate issuance.

For volunteer recruitment (Onsite-Online)

- Hani Hindiyeh, Country Coordinator for Palestine: hani.hindiyeh@unv.org
- Widad Boukaileh, Programme Assistant: widad.boukaileh@unv.org

For technical questions related to Online Volunteering

- Karim Shrayedeh, Programme Associate, OV: karim.shrayedeh@unv.org

